

While naming the relationship, I have followed the rule of taking the first character of every involved entity and combining them together.